

MUSEUM

GALWAY CIVIC

GALWAY CIVIC MUSEUM

The Galway Civic Museum is located on Spanish Parade in the centre of the city. The Museum was designed to house a wide variety of exhibits of local historical importance. Construction began in September 2004 and was completed in May 2005.

The Museum is a three storey building with 2,000 sq.m. of floor space consisting of a restaurant, public exhibition area, offices and a library.

Client:	Galway Civic Museum
Architect:	Ciaran O'Connor / OPW
Main Contractor:	J Sisk & Sons
Consultant:	Homan O'Brien
Construction Period:	8 Months
Scope of Works:	Electrical Installation
Value:	€600 K